SOME OF MANY CHANGES

Just a Few of the Buildings Added to the Old City

A recent issue of The Bulletin noted the arrival in the city of a gentleman who resided here some seventeen years ago, and that it was his first visit since his departure.

He is reported as having said he noted little change in Maysville in that many years.

The gentleman was surely purblind or else remained closely confined to his room during his stay in the city.

Without any special effort THE LEDGER can call to mind the following changes in the erection of new buildings, new industries and changes made in others—

Residences—Editor Thomas A. Davis, J. C. Rains, Misses Joerger, Louis Joerger, W. D. Cochran, Dr. J. D. Davis, Major Chenoweth, James Barbour, Mrs. Baldwin, C. D. Pearce, Harry Owens, Pearce Browning, A. R. Glascock (3), Mike Kenny, Homer Frederick, E. A. Robinson (2), Thomas Coleman and Sudie Worthington.

Churches, stores and other buildings—M. C. Russell, John Thomas (2), Dawson Bros., William Carver, South Methodist Church, First National Bank, Mrs. J. H. Wilson, L. and N. Depot, Green River Tobacco Company, Dodson's Elevators, Ohio Valley Pulley Works, Shoe Factory, Ohio River Lumber Company's Sawmills, Fifth Ward Schoolhouse, Continental Tobacco Works, Sixth Ward Schoolhouse, C. and O. Railway, Keith-Schroeder Harness Co., Maysville Foundry and Machine Works, Pogue's Warehouses, Omar Dodson (3), Sherman Ann, Rollo Owens, J. T. Kackley, Opera-house, John T. Parker's Stable, St. Charles Hotel, Baptist Church, Catholic Church, Parsonage and Church foundation, Davis's Elevators, Ice Plant, Maysville Pressed Brick Company, Electric Light Plant, Electric Cars, Telephones, Klipp & Brown, George Schroeder Harness Manufactory and Keystone Commercial Company.

The above enumeration does not include all the improvements by many thousands of dollars, but quite enough to show that there have been many changes in the city's onward and upward progressive march.

There is not a bigger little city in the state than our own beloved Maysville with its superb Churches, Schools, Banks, Public Library, electric carline, water-works, gas and electric lights, telephone systems, river, railways, bus lines and all the up-to-dateness of a metropolitan city.

Yes indeed, there are changes to be noted in the past seventeen years.

BEST MEN FOR OFFICE

It's All-Important That the County Have Good Magistrates

Two representative Mason county farmers met in the County Clerk's Office Saturday and while warming their shins before a glowing fire provided by the genial and clever County Clerk for the accommodation of his friends and those having business with his office, their conversation was of a general character, and among other topics discussed was the approaching primary.

They spoke of the merits and demerits of this and that candidate for the various offices, and especially those announced for Magistrates, both agreeing that inasmuch as the Fiscal Court was the most important—more so in many particulars than that of the County Court—that the composition of that body should be men of wisdom, sound judgment, level-headed and scrupulously just in their dealings.

They went back and called to memory departed honored citizens who had served as Magistrates and left behind them a record that was worthy of emulation, who served their constituents not alone for the emoluments arising from the position but rather the honor that comes to a faithful and well-tried officer.

They spoke of the many complaints laid at the door of incumbents during their term of office, and also the lack of interest manifested by the sovereign where an opportunity was presented at a new election in not taking advantage of the occasion by replacing them with men whom they knew to be competent and worthy in every particular.

The coming primary being a Democratic affair in which THE LEDGER has no voice or control, the above is written merely to show there must be some dissatisfaction with regards to the manner in which some of the Magistrates have conducted the affairs of their office.

At least it struck The Ledger Man that way.

J. Caproni, fresh oysters and celery.

The National Fox Hunters Association will have its annual hunt at Bardstown November 14th.

In the fall of 1894, ten years ago, the Editor of THE LEDGER received a letter from Dr. T. E. Pickett, then in France, announcing the successful use of antitoxin in the hospitals of Paris and giving in detail many facts in relation to the discovery, preparation and properties of the now famous remedy. Since that eventful discovery serotherapeutic or the serum cure has been accepted by the medical profession of every civilized country as the best method now offered for the treatment of diphtheritic disease.

A ROYAL SLAVE.

The New Brighton (Pa.) News of October 11th says—

The management of the Grand is to be congratulated upon securing a production of such magnitude and excellence as Gordon & Benett's "A Royal Slave," which was presented at that popular playhouse last night. The play, which deals with life in old Mexico during the reign of Maximilian, is absorbingly interesting from start to finish, abounds in many thrilling situations, some of which border on the tragic. The play is well staged as to details in scenery, and the costumes are elegant and true to life.

Some Seasonable Advice.

It may be a piece of superfluous advice to urge people at this season of the year to lay in a supply of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is almost sure to be needed before winter is over, and much more prompt and satisfactory results are obtained when taken as soon as a cold is contracted and before it has become settled in the system, which can only be done by keeping the remedy on hand. This remedy is so widely known and so altogether good that no one should hesitate about buying it in preference to any other. It is for sale by all Druggists.

A Judicious Inquiry.
A well known traveling man who visits the drug trade says he has often heard druggists inquire of customers who asked for a cough medicine whether it was wanted for a child or for an adult, and if for a child they almost invariably recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. The reason for this is that they know there is no danger from it and that it always cures. There is not the least danger in giving it and for coughs, colds and croup it is unsurpassed. For sale by all Druggists.

The per capita expenditure is increasing, but at a snail's pace as compared with the increase in the per capita wealth of the Nation.

THE publication of the daily cash balances in Uncle Sam's Treasury is the best argument for the election of a Republican Administration. Under Mr. CLEVELAND and Democratic control there was never any balance.

The Captain of one of the trawlers fired upon says that the Russians disregarded the signals warning them of the character of the vessels. No motive can be assigned for the unusual procedure of the Russian ships other than that the trawlers were mistaken for Japanese submarine boats. TO THIN PEOPLE.

VALUABLE INFORMATION
Given by Druggist John C. Pecor.

Druggist John C. Pecor gives the following advice to those who want to gain flesh, and it should be of value to everybody in Maysville: "The quickest, surest and safest way for thin people to gain flesh is to take Vinol, our cod liver oil preparation, and the reason that Vinol is so far superior to anything else to create flesh and strength is because it does actually contain all of the medicinal, curative elements actually taken from genuine fresh cod's livers, which no other cod liver oil preparation does, and being without oil or grease to upset the stomach and retard its work it is a great improvement over old-fashioned cod liver oil and emulsions.

"Prominent physicians agree that this new cod liver oil preparation, Vinol, is certainly the greatest tissue builder, flesh creator and strength producer on the market. They prescribe it for their patients who are in need of a tonic reconstructor, and to those who want to gain flesh.

"Vinol acts upon the stomach in a beneficial way, enabling it to obtain the necessary ingredients from the daily food eaten to make pure, rich, red blood, create flesh and strength, and so sure are we of its action that we freely offer to return the money paid for Vinol in every case where it fails."

WATSON SCORNS HIM.

Shows Contempt For Parker In His Letter of Acceptance. Dodges Race Issues.

Candidate Describes Hill's Man as Lacking in Manhood and the Qualities of Leadership.

In his letter of acceptance, issued last week, Thomas E. Watson, the Populist candidate for president, says in part: "Much abuse has been heaped upon me because more time was devoted by me to denunciation of Parker than of Roosevelt. The reason is obvious enough. Roosevelt is a straight cut Republican, who declares boldly for Republican principles, defiantly defending existing conditions. To attack him is a short, easy job. He is so conspicuous and stationary a target that no one who wished to take a shot at him could possibly miss the mark.

"He is not in a bush; he is behind no blind; he stands out in the open, and he says to his enemies: 'Here I am—a Republican who stands pat on all existing conditions; if you want a fight, come on!' Now, I can understand a Republican like that, and while I would love to make my battle ring on his helmet until one of us went down in political defeat and death, yet I could respect him all the while as a foeman worthy of any man's steel. Mr. Roosevelt will get Republican votes and no others. He is not seeking the support of Bryan Democrats upon false pretenses. He is not playing a confidence game on the negro question. He is not attempting to win Jeffersonians by a sham adherence to Jeffersonian principles. In short, there is no danger that Jeffersonian Democrats will vote for Roosevelt upon the assumption that he is a Jeffersonian Democrat. There is no danger that Roosevelt will get a single vote to which I, as a Jeffersonian in principle, am entitled.

Parker Lacks Leadership.
"With Mr. Parker it is different. He is not a Jeffersonian Democrat, yet he seeks to secure the support of Jeffersonians. If he would speak out plainly and tell the people that he is in principle the same thing practically that Roosevelt is the Bryan Democrats would fall away from him by the million. I would then be enabled to organize such a party of revolt against the Republican rule as would sweep the country.

"His attitude is thoroughly disingenuous, profoundly lacking in true manhood and leadership. He was willing to stand upon the New York state platform which Mr. Bryan denounced as a dishonest platform. His position was so indefinite, so foxy, so entirely neutral, that Mr. Bryan declared to cheering thousands that Parker was 'absolutely unfit for the Democratic nomination,' and that 'nobody but an artful dodger' could stand upon that New York platform, which so much resembled his father, David B. Hill. I believe it was also in the same speeches that Mr. Bryan declared that a man should be willing to die for his convictions, which is also a very sound proposition.

Forced Parker's Telegram.

"By a dictatorial tone, amounting to menace, Judge Parker was driven by the New York World into the sending of the telegram which told the Democratic convention for the first time, and many hours after Parker had secured the nomination, that the gold standard was 'irrevocably fixed.'

"Neither then nor in any utterance afterward did he say that the gold standard was right until he had been shelled so vigorously by myself and others for having deserted the free silverites without saying they were wrong and having gone over to the gold standard without saying it was right. Even Judge Parker finally realized that the ground was caving under his feet and was literally driven to firmer footing. At last he has taken his place side by side with Roosevelt on the most deeply important issue before the people. . . .

Favors Liberal Pensions.

"Roosevelt stands in the open and dares Parker defiantly, almost mockingly, and Parker meekly stays out of the fight. In his formal letter of acceptance he says that he takes up the glove thrown at his feet, declaring that he will revoke that pension order No. 78.

"But in the same breath he hastens to admit that Roosevelt did precisely what he (Parker) thinks ought to be done. If elected he (Parker) will at once ask congress to do what Roosevelt has already done. Heavens! What a meek warrior is this! 'Roosevelt did the right thing, but not in the right way, and if you will elect me president I will do the same thing in the proper way.' Did any nominee ever seek the presidency on that kind of platform before?

Parker Dodges the Race Issues.

"When is he going to free those Philippines? He does not say. What is he going to do to the trusts? Will he deal drastically with the Standard Oil trust, which has coddled his political ambition for the last two years? What will he do to the sugar trust, which his campaign manager, Gorman, represents in the United States senate? On the negro question why has he been silent? Does he condemn Roosevelt for that Booker Washington lunch? Does he condemn the appointment of negroes to office? Why did he fail to make any reference whatever to that plank in the Republican platform which his running mate, Davis, says created a 'race issue'? The solid south is being kicked and cuffed into the support of Parker upon the ground that he differs from Roosevelt on the negro question. Before the south is dragged into voting for the New Yorker and against her own sons, hers in blood and sympathy and deathless devotion, ought not the New Yorker to be compelled to speak on this question? . . .

"When Dave Hill, Pat McCarran and August Belmont finished their work the Democratic bosses were so nearly nude that had it been a personal matter rather than political they could have been indicted for a 'notorious act of public indecency.' Able statesmen had undressed themselves in public. And now they are furiously angry with me because I am renewing the struggle which they abandoned. They resent the fact that some one else should try to do that which they were not willing to try to do.

Parker's Trust Advisers.

"They went to St. Louis with principles; they came back without them. They were clay in the hands of the Pat McCarrans of Standard Oil, Belmont of the Louisville and Nashville and Gorman of the sugar trust. The very first speech of the campaign was made in Brooklyn by Senator Bailey of Texas under the auspices of the Standard Oil company lobbyist, Pat McCarran. The chosen advisers of Mr. Parker are the men who led for the trusts and corporations when the taxpayers were looted during Cleveland's second administration. From Gorman, who reeks with the foulest trust legislation for twenty years, to Carlisle, who wrote the sugar schedule at the dictation of the sugar trust, and Belmont of the secret midnight bond deal down to Olney, who, in effect, advised the too willing Cleveland to lend the United States army to the Pullman Palace Car company in Chicago, the notorious old band of hoodlars are there. . . .

"Every line of the platform seems to be in a tremble lest it should displease the beneficiaries of class legislation. Every tone of its quaking voice seems to say to the corporations, 'Don't be afraid; I won't hurt you.' With the anxious fear of Snug, the joiner, in 'Midsummer Night's Dream,' the apparent lion kindly dissipates the fear of his audience by assuring them in advance that its roar is only for stage purposes."

SENATOR DEPEW'S STORY.

Told at Reception at New York Republican Club to State Candidates.

It seems hard lines to say that the Democratic brother is not competent to conduct the business of this great state and ought not to be entrusted with these larger responsibilities which come with the construction of the barge canal, but I can tell you the reason why.

We all wondered during the Spanish-American war why it was that when the fleet at Santiago was about equal to ours it was sunk in twenty minutes, while ours received only one shot, and we all wondered that while the fleet at Manila was about equal to ours it was sunk in nineteen minutes and we received no shot.

People all over the world could not explain it, and the naval people at Washington had difficulty in finding out how it could have occurred. But coming on from Washington at the close of the last great victory I had as my fellow companion that delightful wit and most charming man and actor, old Joe Jefferson, and I said to him:

"I have been in Washington, and the naval experts cannot tell why it is that Cervera's fleet should have been lost in twenty minutes and not a shot hit our fleet, and the same thing happened at Manila bay."

And Mr. Jefferson said to me, "As an actor of fifty years' experience I can tell you—the Spaniards had not rehearsed."

The trouble with our Democratic brethren is that in the forty-four years since the war, having been in power only four years and in our state not having seen power for the last ten years, they have not rehearsed. [Applause.] And so the performance is not one upon which the people of the state of New York will lift the curtain to bias the actors off the stage.

Mrs. L. C. Glover, Vice Pres. Milwaukee, Wis., Business Woman's Association, is another one of the million women who have been restored to health by using Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM: I was married for several years and no children blessed my home. The doctor said I had a complication of female troubles and I could not have any children unless I could be cured. He tried to cure me, but after experimenting for several months, my husband became disgusted, and one night when we noticed a testimonial of a woman who had been cured of similar trouble through the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, he went out and bought a bottle for me. I used your medicine for three and one half months, improving steadily in health, and in twenty-two months a child came. I cannot fully express the joy and thankfulness that is in my heart. Our home is a different place now, as we have something to live for, and all the credit is due to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Yours very sincerely, Mrs. L. C. Glover, 614 Grove St., Milwaukee, Wis." Vice President, Milwaukee Business Woman's Ass'n.

Women should not fail to profit by the experience of these two women; just as surely as they were cured of the troubles enumerated in their letters, just so certainly will Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound cure others who suffer from womb troubles, inflammation of the ovaries, kidney troubles, nervous excitability, and nervous prostration; remember that it is Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound that is curing women, and don't allow any druggist to sell you anything else in its place.

An Indiana Lady Tells of a Wonderful Cure:—

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM: It is a pleasure for me to write and tell what your wonderful medicine has done for me. I was sick for three years with change of life, and my physician thought a cancerous condition of the womb. During these three years I suffered untold agony.

"I cannot find words in which to express my bad feelings. I did not expect to ever see another well day. I read some of the testimonials recommending your medicine and decided to write to you and give your treatment a trial.

"Before I had taken half a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, I began to sleep. I have taken now six bottles and am so well I can do all kinds of work."—Mrs. LIZZIE HINKLE, Salem, Ind.

If there is anything in your case about which you would like special advice, write freely to Mrs. Pinkham. She can surely help you, for no person in America can speak from a wider experience in treating female ills. Address is Lynn, Mass.; her advice is free and always helpful.

$5000 FORFEIT if we cannot forthwith produce the original letters and signatures of above testimonials, which will prove their absolute genuineness. Lydia E. Pinkham Med. Co., Lynn, Mass.
